

GEO. WARREN, Editor and Publisher.
JAN. O. WARREN, Assistant Editor.

HICKMAN, FULTON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, JUNE, 1898.

G. L. HOWELL,
Special Editor.

HICKMAN, THE METROPOLIS OF FULTON COUNTY, ONE OF KENTUCKY'S MOST BEAUTIFUL TOWNS.

LOCATED in the very heart of the richest AGRICULTURAL SECTION OF THE BLUE GRASS STATE.

GREAT Forests--With millions of feet of Desirable Timber in CLOSE PROXIMITY TO THE CITY.

INEXHAUSTIBLE beds of Fire Clay, suitable for the manufacture of China Ware and White Ware. Splendid OPENING FOR A SEWER PIPE INDUSTRY.

ONE of the most stable towns in the state. Not a Business FAILURE IN THIRTY YEARS. Electric Lights and Water Works owned and operated by the city.

UNEXCELLED Transportation facilities, by Water and Rail. In close connection with the GREAT southern markets.

POPULATED by a people of refinement and culture. Noted for their hospitality.

which are felt in all channels of trade. The Hickman Wagon Co. stands the first, followed by the plantations. Through the hands of the town's people are annually shipped all sorts of the finest produce, as shown in special articles in this issue.

The professional men of the city are, in the pursuit of their special calling, and in the exercise of their profession, are the most successful in the state. Their success is due to the fact that they are not only men of high ability, but also men of high character. They are men of high character, and their success is due to the fact that they are not only men of high ability, but also men of high character.

Fulton County Court House, on the bluff, overlooking River.

The history of Hickman is as unique as the town itself. The site upon which the town is built was a favored rendezvous of the North American Indians long before the advent of white men. The town of Hickman, Kentucky, is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce. The town is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce.

Little or nothing is known of the first landing of the white man in this section. It is said that they were of Spanish origin and came up the river on a trading expedition. Some few of them made friends and took up their abode among the Indians. Their hybrid progeny became the savage in all the manner of the Indians. The story of the town's history is one of the most interesting in the state. The town is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.

The Catholic Church in Hickman is one of the most beautiful in the state. It is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce. The church is a fine example of the architecture of the South, and its interior is one of the most beautiful in the state.

those of any other town in the state. The architectural beauty and interior appointments, when the new building is completed, will be complete. The school building, as the last of the town, is in every way modern and equipped with a view to preserving the health of the people. The building is well lighted and ventilated and is a complete model of modern architecture.

Hickman's metropolis is in the most beautiful in the state, the city of the dead is located on a high elevation about a mile from the town. The grounds are well kept and the city of the dead is a fine example of the architecture of the South. The city of the dead is a fine example of the architecture of the South, and its interior is one of the most beautiful in the state.

The professional men of the city are, in the pursuit of their special calling, and in the exercise of their profession, are the most successful in the state. Their success is due to the fact that they are not only men of high ability, but also men of high character. They are men of high character, and their success is due to the fact that they are not only men of high ability, but also men of high character.

OUR CITY OFFICIALS.

Like every other feature of this enterprise, the list of public officers is one of the most interesting in the state. The town is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce.

HICKMAN WAGON COMPANY.

A PEERLESS INDUSTRY. FAMED THE COUNTY THROUGH FOR ITS NONPAREIL VEHICLE PRODUCTION. ESTABLISHED IN 1858.

The Hickman Wagon Company is one of the most successful in the state. It is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce. The company is a fine example of the architecture of the South, and its interior is one of the most beautiful in the state.

SOCIAL FEATURES.

Hickman people are noted for their kindness and hospitality. Society is one of the most interesting in the state. The town is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce.

THE F. & A. M. Odd Fellows. The F. & A. M. Odd Fellows in Hickman is one of the most beautiful in the state. It is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce.

and iron fitting works. The machinery used in this, as in the other departments, is of the latest improved character, and the work is done in the most perfect manner. The town is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce.

Clinton Street, Decorated in honor of Dewey's Victory at Manila.

The town is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce. The town is a fine example of the architecture of the South, and its interior is one of the most beautiful in the state.

HOEHN.

The town is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce. The town is a fine example of the architecture of the South, and its interior is one of the most beautiful in the state.

BUSINESS MEN'S ASSOCIATION.

The Business Men's Association of Hickman is one of the most successful in the state. It is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce. The association is a fine example of the architecture of the South, and its interior is one of the most beautiful in the state.

OUR BUSINESS MEN.

In this edition, it has been our pleasure to list the names of the business men of Hickman. The town is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce.

LECLEDE HOTEL.

There is no more noted personage in the town of Hickman than the proprietor of the Leclède Hotel. The hotel is a fine example of the architecture of the South, and its interior is one of the most beautiful in the state.

E. R. ELLISON.

Special Agent Mutual Life of New York.

The town is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce. The town is a fine example of the architecture of the South, and its interior is one of the most beautiful in the state.

C. F. BALTZER.

The town is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce. The town is a fine example of the architecture of the South, and its interior is one of the most beautiful in the state.

One of Hickman's Residence Streets.

The town is situated on the banks of the great Mississippi river, and its location is one of the most favorable for trade and commerce. The town is a fine example of the architecture of the South, and its interior is one of the most beautiful in the state.

hard-borne, the elite on the south The home and the environment reveals the life of contentment, being suggested by all the luxuries that the agency of money can procure. Along with the home and the environment, the agency of money is also the agency of a share of his living in insurance, being the agent at his point for a number of old-fashioned agencies, among which the Phoenix of Hartford and the North American for fire at 101 Nassau Street in New York is the most in the head. Through his agency in life insurance over $125,000 has been paid out and the electron field plane

The Home of C. E. Rice.

[illegible]

[illegible]

members have had a life-long

[illegible]